

Nurminen Logistics Plc to launch employee co-determination procedure within the Finnish subsidiaries

Nurminen Logistics initiates co-determination procedure within the Finnish subsidiaries. The procedure is part of preparation for possible reduction of orders due to labor market situation of manufacturing industries in Finland. The company estimates that in case of prolonged labor market disturbances temporary lay-offs may become necessary.

The co-determination procedure has been estimated to result in temporary lay-offs with maximum duration of 30 days. The company follows upon the development of the industrial labor market and is making every effort to ensure undisturbed service for its customers.
